Tennessee Porcelain Artists' Convention & Show Display and Judged Exhibit Rules

1. The convention (show) chairman may appoint an exhibit chairman.
2. The convention (show) chairman and exhibit chairman shall be fully apprised of our standards of acceptance and have discretion to accept or reject any entered piece.
3. In case of a dispute, a grievance committee will be comprised of the president and the officers.
4. The exhibit committee shall decide the exhibit area (size per member) as space allows. Any piece may not exceed 28" in any direction. If used, the exhibitor must furnish easels.
5. The convention (show) chairperson shall procure the services of the judge/judges. They shall not be a part of the convention in any manner. The judge/judges are to be paid from the convention (show) fund. Judging will be done while the floor is empty.
6. All work must be painted and fired glazed or bisque porcelain.
7. Judged or not judged: Only porcelain tiles are allowed. Frames are optional.
8. No decals are allowed. This includes monogram decals, scroll decals, banding decals, etching decals, and raised paste decals.
9. Non-member work shall not be accepted. Members must have held membership for six months.
10. Judged Exhibit: No seminar, workshop, or class work will be accepted. The artwork must be original in concept, design, and execution. If any painting is questioned as to originality, proof shall be furnished by the person questioned within the time frame of the convention, or the judging stands. If the originality is disproved, the remaining winners will be advanced. Note: If any artist is questioned, photos or sketches could prove design originality. Teachers will be judged separately from non-teachers. Non-members work shall not be accepted. Members must have held membership for six months or longer.
11. Display Only Exhibit: May include class, workshop, seminar, or original work. It will not be judged.
12. All pieces must be signed, dated, and have been painted since the last state convention.
13. These rules shall be included in mailed application for entry and shall be signed, dated and returned by the deadline set by the exhibit committee. Ample time shall be given for their return.
